No flag but the Old Flag—the Red, White and Blue,
With the stars of a Union tried [illegible] and true [illegible]
Arise and defend it! ye sons of the brave,
Whose blood bought the banner [illegible]

WEDNESDAY MORNING, NOV. 9, 1864.

AFTER THE ELECTION.—The battle is fought; and when the smoke clears away we will see that the country is safe and doubtless Mr. Lincoln will be the man designed by the votes of our people to hold the reins of government for another four years.

In any event we feel confident that the masses will cheerfully acquiesce, and that the coming man will not only have the support of the Nation, but will himself hold in careful keeping the honor and safety of the country that, by the voice of millions of freemen, is this day committed to his care.

True, that General McClellan is supported by many who are no real friends to the Union; that rebellious treason looks to him as its last and only hope, and that Northern treason supports him as instinctively as Southern treason hopes for his success; but once elected, it is not a possible thing for him to forget his own patriotic words in times gone by; that he should ignore the voice of the majority of his supporters, who, whatever may be their mind as to the measures of the present Administration, will not consent that treason shall succeed in dismembering the Union and destroying the Government, or that our victorious armies and conquering generals shall have so long waged their battle against treason to have still waged it all in vain. Neither could he turn a deaf ear to the voices of the slain that from so many bloody fields appeal to their fellows never to give up their efforts until they have fought it out with treason and humbled it in the dust.

Believing in Mr. Lincoln's policy, and that as at present constructed and officered under his direction our armies have brought within our view the only peace consistent with honor, we have lent all the efforts we honorably could to assist the Union cause, and now most sincerely hope that its success is assured, and that the rebellion will be crushed under the auspices of the man under whose rule it was inaugurated.

We are glad the matter is decided, and while we will willingly consent to no armistice with the confederate armies, we are well pleased to lay our armor off and be friends [illegible] with our political opponents.

But we intend to be on the qui vive for all that, and decidedly maintain our ideas of right, and defend the principles that we have so much at heart.

HOW THE RETURNS CAME IN.—Last evening the Union men had a good time at the Club Room over the intelligence from California, and went into raptures over it. The news from the different counties show that the State is safe for about 1500 majority for Lincoln. The vote of Portland foots up 1502, a tremendous increase on the spring vote; and we know that something like 100 illegal votes were cast, most of them gamblers, people here who voted in Idaho last month, and emigrants that crossed the plains this fall—all of course given for McClellan. Our majority is much smaller than it ought to have been on this account; but we have done nobly for all, and send our greeting to neighboring counties in the shape of near 500 majority. There were a good many tipsy men in town last night, but not many rows. Our erring Democratic brethren were tremendously jolly, considering their "situation," and greeted the news from California with discharges from a howitzer which they had captured for the occasion. We admire their grit, but cannot wish them better luck.

SHODDY AT LONG BRANCH.—A correspondent of the San Francisco Bulletin, writing from the famous watering place of Long Branch, Long Island, says:

This is the place for shoddy. Portly dames, as large as elephants, with diamonds sparkling in their ears, on their fingers, and around their wrists, toddle along, leaning on the arm of some diminutive specimen of a man whom they have selected as their husband. Young girls, beautiful as the sky when tinted with the rays of the morning sun, smile sweetly upon you from every side. Nature has made them handsome, but God has denied them sense.

"EUROPE IN 1864."—The Paris Presse notices the appearance of a new pamphlet, which it has the candor to suppose will create a "profound sensation in the political world." It is entitled L'Europe en 1864, advocates an alliance between France, Russia and England, and recommends, by way of avoiding war, the formation of a congress of lawyers, who are to be entrusted with the task of drawing up an international code.

THE COPPERHEADS DAGUERREOTYPED.—John Cessna, of Bedford (Pa.), long and widely known as a leading Democrat, in a recent speech described a kind of people whom he had observed in southern Pennsylvania:

There are unfortunately those amongst us who cannot discuss the question a single moment without showing that they are at heart foes of the Government and enemies of their race. The people soon learn to find out and know these men. Human skill and ingenuity and all of a traitor's cunning cannot long succeed in concealing their real sentiments. They hang back or skulk away from our public gatherings on our National holidays; they disparage Union officers and soldiers and eulogize the rebels. All Union victories are insignificant—of little account; rebel victories are of incalculable value and importance. Good news is never credited—bad news is often originated, circulated, and believed long before verified. Taxes are oppressive and oppressive; drafts are unconstitutional and odious; war is bloody and desolating and the war ought at once to stop it. For nearly four years everything has been wrong; nothing excellent, nothing even praiseworthy or passable has ever been done by their own Government—only mistakes, wrongs, wicked acts of tyranny—the [illegible] people are made to the people [illegible] might and prevent the establishment of a [illegible] despotism. During all this time they have never been known to utter a word of denunciation against the rebellion, or see an improper act [illegible] of the rebel lines. These are unmistakable marks of the traitor. He may remonstrate, he may write down beneath the picture in large letters the word "patriot." He may, in very many [illegible] earnest words, insist that he is a "sound Democrat," and that every man of his party who supports the war is an "Abolitionist;" yet, after all, he is neither a patriot nor a good Democrat. You may turn him upside down and inside out, cleanse and wash him with all the pure waters of America, and you will get nothing out of him but a [illegible] miserable traitor—just such a one as Gen. Jackson would have strangled for treason in his day and looked to the [illegible] afterward.

SPECIAL DISPATCHES TO THE DAILY OREGONIAN.

LATER FROM THE EAST.

Dates to November 8.

NEW YORK, Nov. 7.—General Butler, by direction of the President and the assignment by General Dix, commanding the Department of the East, has assumed command of the military forces of this State for the purpose of preserving order until after the Presidential election, to prevent the supposed design of the rebels and sympathizers to carry out a systematic plundering and burning raid in the principal cities. Butler, in an official order, assures the citizens that they need not apprehend any interference with the rights of privileged electors, as his subordinates are instructed strictly to refrain from anything of the kind. His only object is to preserve peace. Superintendent Kennedy has issued an order to the Metropolitan Police instructing them to enforce, throughout the district, compliance with the State law requiring that no intoxicating liquors shall be sold on election day; that no box for the distribution of tickets shall be erected within one hundred and fifty feet of the polling place, and that no unjustifiable physical force shall be used, either by policemen or citizens, to molest or intimidate electors.

The Richmond Dispatch of the 4th says that the capture of Plymouth by the enemy is explained on the account of a lack of sufficient watchfulness on the part of our troops. It seems that a party of 15 men, belonging to the blockading squadron, took a small boat and started for Plymouth. On their way they found a small boat containing six of our men stationed on the river as a picket guard, who being asleep, were all taken prisoners. They proceeded to Plymouth, found the Albemarle at its wharf, ran the torpedo boat under her amidships, blew her up and she soon sunk. The infantry stationed on the wharf fired on the assaulting party, and captured the whole of them. There was no force of the enemy near Plymouth, excepting five or six gunboats in the sound, but the loss of the Albemarle opened the Roanoke to them, hence the fall of Plymouth. Capt. Roberts, it is stated, commanded the Albemarle and there being very few on board at the time of the explosion, no lives were lost.

NASHVILLE, Nov. 5.—Yesterday at daylight the gunboat Undine came through the chute at Reynoldsburg Island and landed rebel troops, who fired her and left. At 8 o'clock the gunboats Key West and Elfin steamed down near the west side of Reynoldsburg Island from Johnsonville and engaged the rebel battery with 24 pound Parrotts. The gunboats were driven back to Johnsonville badly damaged. At 2 o'clock P. M. the enemy's batteries opened below and above Johnsonville on the disabled gunboats, which responded until the ammunition was exhausted, when they were blown up. The crews are at the fort in Johnsonville. This morning the rebels are crossing in the boats of the Undine about five miles above Johnsonville. Two flatboats also were used. No fighting has taken place to-day. The rebels were burying their dead. Gunboats from Paducah are in sight and reinforcements have arrived. Schofield takes command of Johnsonville. Intelligence from below Florence states that the larger part of Hood's army is still south of the river, out of rations and clothing, and exhausting the country.

NEW YORK, Nov. 7.—Intelligence from Mexico states that Garcia, De la Cordona, Sandoval and other Juarez leaders in the department of Zacatecas have given their adhesion to the Imperial Government. Gen. Mejia, in the name of the Imperialists, has installed himself at Matamoras, Juarists there having all submitted to the new order of things. Telegraph lines are to be established between the leading cities of Mexico, communicating by way of Texas with the United States. Another line will connect Mexico with Yucatan and a submarine cable with [illegible] Cuba. In this way it is expected that the City of Mexico will soon be in direct communication with New York, Havana and San Francisco. The forces lately under command of Gen. Ortega are said to be completely depressed. Whole companies have voluntarily gone to various municipal authorities and laid down their arms.

Private dispatches of the 5th quote gold at 242 @245.

NEW YORK, Nov. 6.—The Herald's Army of the Potomac dispatch says the regular rainy weather appears to have set in before Richmond and Petersburg, causing temporary cessation of operations. There is no relaxation of vigilance in the necessary military work. Affairs along the line remain about in the same satisfactory condition in which they were at the conclusion of Grant's reconnoisance, Oct. 27th. Gen. Gregg has been brevetted Major General, dating from the engagement at Reams' Station, Aug. 26th.

AN ADVENTURE.—Captain Butler was captured night before last, and I intended to speak of it in my last dispatch, as it is considered one of the neatest things that has occurred. Upon the night in question General Davis was ordered to open communication with the infantry on the right of us. The night was exceedingly dark, and the roads passed through thick woods, and strange to all. To make the matter certain, Gen. Davis concluded to go himself. He took with him the First New Jersey, mounted, with a portion of the Sixth Ohio Regiment, under command of Capt. Austin, dismounted, as an advanced guard. They had proceeded some four miles when they discovered parties approaching. Capt. Austin, suspecting them to be rebs, cried "Halt! Who comes there?" "Friends," was the reply. "Dismount, one of you, and advance alone." Upon this, one of the party approached, when Capt. Austin asked him who he was and what he belonged to. "Captain Butler, of General Donnovan's," he replied. No sooner were the words spoken than Captain Austin seized him by the throat and threw him to the ground, preventing him giving an alarm, as General Donnovan's whole brigade was within a few yards of them. He then sent a portion of his force through the woods, making a detour and coming upon the flank of the enemy in the road, when they poured a volley into them, scattering them in the wildest confusion in all directions. Captain Butler is now in our hands—a victim of misplaced confidence.—Correspondence N. Y. Herald, Oct. 1st.

BRAVERY REWARDED.—A correspondent writing from the north bank of the James on the 4th of October, says:

A pleasing incident of Friday's battle came to my notice to-day. I have informed you that five battle flags were captured by the Eighteenth Corps. I put the number one too little. There were six, and they all belonged to Clingman's North Carolina brigade, whom prisoners subsequently taken assert to have been completely smashed and obliterated. One of the flags was captured by a corporal of the One Hundred and Fifty-eighth New York Regiment, named Joseph Thomas, who took it at great risk and without help from any one. General Butler heard of this bravery and offered him a commission by way of reward. The modest corporal said that he was too young for such an honor and responsibility. Thereupon the General issued an order recommending him as a proper soldier to receive a medal for gallant service, and in addition, gave him a furlough for twenty days, requested the Paymaster to settle up his arrears of pay, and from his private purse presented twenty-five dollars to the young man for the purpose of defraying his travelling expenses home and back. This merited recognition of bravery will have the effect of preventing a heretofore common practice of soldiers who have captured similar trophies. It has often happened that the man who secured a battle flag would tear it from the staff and conceal it under his blouse to surreptitiously send home to his friends or sweetheart, instead of handing it over to his commanding officer that his comrades might share in the glory of the achievement on which they have an undoubted claim.

This morning Gen. Meade narrowly escaped a serious wound. He, with his staff and Gens. Griffin and Bartlett, of the Fifth Corps, with their respective staffs, were collected near the Boswell house, on General Griffin's line. A rebel battery, which was shelling one of our forts not far distant from where this group of horsemen were standing, threw an accidental shot in among them. It grazed the boot of General Meade, leaving its mark thereon, clipped off a lock of hair from the tail of General Humphrey's horse, passed harmlessly between Generals Griffin and Bartlett, and fell to the ground without injuring any one. It was a lucky shot, but rather a closer one than one cares to have come as a general rule.—Philadelphia Inquirer.

THE BUNTING FAMILY, ATTENTION!—Mr. Joseph Bunting, of Olympia, W. T., hears that persons of that name have crossed the plains this year, and if they are any relation of his, wishes to hear from them.

NEVADA GOES FOR THE UNION!

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 8.—The Presidential election in this State to-day passed off quietly so far as heard from. But meagre returns have been received from the interior of the State; but the indications are that Lincoln will have from 15,000 to 20,000 majority. In this city the vote is [illegible] 27,000. Estimated Union majority between 5,000 and 6,000. Sacramento City gives 1,575 Union majority; Marysville 325 Union majority. From Nevada, the returns are altogether too meagre to form an opinion, but the indications are that [illegible] a Union majority in that State. The eastern line is not working to-day.

OREGON ELECTION RETURNS.

ROMANCE AND REALITY.—We have just been put in possession of the facts of a sad case of monomania, which had a terrible termination. A young lady residing in Brooklin, New York, about nineteen years of age, about a year since became inspired with the idea that she was a second modern Joan of Arc, called by Providence to lead our armies to certain victory in this contest. The hallucination was a strong one, and a change of scene being suggested by her physicians, she was brought to Ann Arbor, in this State. Her mania, however, increased until it was found necessary to confine her to her apartments. She, however, succeeded in making her escape, came to this city and joined the drum-head corps of a Michigan regiment, her sex known only to herself, and succeeded in getting with her regiment to the Army of the Cumberland. How the poor girl survived the hardships of the Kentucky campaign, when strong men fell in numbers, must forever remain a mystery. The regiment to which she was attached had a place in the division of the gallant Van Cleve, and during the bloody battle of Lookout Mountain, the sad girl fell, pierced in the left side by a minnie ball, and when borne to the surgeon's tent her sex was discovered. She was told by the surgeon that her wound was mortal, and he advised her to give her name, that her family might be informed of her fate. This she finally, though reluctantly, consented to do, and the Colonel of the regiment, though suffering himself from a painful wound, became interested in her behalf, and prevailed upon her to let him send a dispatch to her father. This she dictated in the following manner:

"Mr. [illegible], No. [illegible] Willoughby street, Brooklin: Forgive your dying daughter. I have but a few moments to live. My native soil drinks my blood. I expected to deliver my country, but the fates would not have it so. I am content to die. Pray, Pa, forgive me. Tell Ma to kiss my darling [illegible]. [illegible]

"P. S.—Give my gold watch to little Eph." [The youngest brother of the dying girl.]

The poor girl was buried on the field in which she fell in the service of her country, which she fondly hoped to save.—Detroit Advertiser.

Michael Nostradamus was a physician of Provence, France, known as an astrologer in the time of Catharine de Medici. He composed "The Seven Centuries of Prophecies," in enigmatical rhymes, some of which are admitted to have been most exactly fulfilled. Among others, his prophecy [illegible] hundred years before its occurrence, of the execution of Charles I, of England, and, still more surprising, of the exact date of the French Republic, in 1792. He died A. D. 1566. ([illegible])

Although many of the predictions made by Nostradamus, especially those concerning [illegible] Henry IV and Louis XVI of France, have been completely verified, they are generally disbelieved in our times. But in the [illegible] of that great man, vol. 24, (edition of 1649,) we find the following, which would seem to deserve attention:

"About that time (1861) a great quarrel and contest will arise in a country beyond the seas (America). Many poor devils will be hung, and many poor wretches killed by a punishment other than a cord. [illegible] will not cease for four years, at which no one should be astonished or surprised, for there will be [illegible] of hatred and obstinacy in it. At the end [illegible] prostrate and almost ruined, [illegible] embrace each other in great joy and love."

"The period [illegible] comprises the exact term of [illegible] At the close, a new era, [illegible] of harmony and peace. [illegible] go through this fiery ordeal, we must [illegible] minds to bear up manfully through the [illegible] and acquit ourselves like men. [illegible] the blessings [illegible] arms with greater joy and love [illegible] us [illegible]"

An ardent Union [illegible] recently. They looked [illegible] been listening the [illegible] judge," said one of them [illegible] suppose the big cannon has [illegible] replied the judge [illegible] Atlanta and Jeff. Davis at [illegible]

THROAT.

CINCINNATI, Jan. 8, 1861. Messrs. J. J. Scovill & Co.—Gentlemen: I feel it a duty I owe to others to let them know the value of your Dr. William Hall's Balsam for curing of Croup. My little girl, seven years old, had an attack of Croup, and came very near dying. I gave her Dr. Wm. Hall's Balsam, as directed, which gave relief in a very short time. We have used in cases of bad coughs, with the happiest effect. Benjamin Pitkin, Eighth street, between Main and Sycamore streets. For sale by Druggists everywhere. REDINGTON & CO., General Agents for the Pacific Coast, 416 and 418 Front street, San Francisco.

Beware of all other preparations of the same name. Each bottle of the genuine bears the signature of "J. B. Baker & Co.," Cincinnati. Take none other. Price One Dollar per bottle.

AS A SPRING REMEDY, to purify and cleanse the Blood, leaving it free from all humors and impurities, we assert with BOILS.

WE READ THAT ONE OF the sorest afflictions that the patient Job was called upon to bear was that of boils, and they have been found to be, from that time to the present, the most troublesome and painful of visitors. We have known instances where individuals were sure to have these eruptions break out upon them once a month at least. They show an impure state of the blood, and that humor of some kind is lurking there, and the overplus of corruption is actually forced to the surface of the body, making its appearance in the form of Boils. Now, is it not best at once to purify the system? Do you ask what will do this? We answer, Scovill's Blood and Liver Syrup. It is curing humors in every form, and there is not a State in the Union where it has not accomplished the most astonishing cures. REDINGTON & CO., Agents, 416 and 418 Front Street, San Francisco.

BE VIGILANT.—We were surprised a few days since at intelligence received in a peculiar manner, nevertheless considered reliable, that there was an organized band of desperadoes in our midst who intended at some future time to fire the city in different places, for the purpose of plunder and theft. There is no reasonable doubt but that the information has some degree of correctness, and the officers of the fire department, who have been fully posted in the matter, as well as the police, are on the alert for any emergency. This city never before has had so many loose people in it, and here there are probably of the worst characters in the country—[illegible] into our midst without the means for subsistence during the winter, and probably they may avail themselves of chances for the purpose of [illegible]. A similar gang recently infested San Francisco and an attempt was made to fire the city on the night of the 17th of October which was only thwarted by extra vigilance on the part of the firemen. [illegible] should be in readiness here to respond to the immediate demands of the chief.

INCREASE OF PRODUCE FOR EXPORT.—The bark Industry will be ready to take cargo for San Francisco to-morrow. The freight already offered is sufficient for a full cargo, and three vessels could find ample freight at this time for outward voyage. The past has been an excellent season for our shipping community, and all the [illegible] the difficulty heretofore attending the obtaining of cargo for vessels bound out has been in a great degree a detriment to our commercial relations. When we shall obtain a position in producing articles for export that will be equal to the capacity of any line of packets, inward freights will naturally be less, and the entire community will profit by it.

GOOD ORDER AT THE POLLS.—We have no serious trouble to record as having occurred at the polls. Thanks to the efficient and numerous police organized for the occasion, and the good sense and good temper of all parties concerned, peace was preserved, and noisy and disagreeable and drunken men were kept out of the way. That was just as it should be, and it redounds much to the credit of our city.

There were many strangers in the city who voted, without in many cases having any title to do so. Also many emigrants gave [illegible] Mac a lift, that was not exactly constitutional, but we polled a handsome majority for Lincoln and Johnson, and our state is all right for them.

FOR THE SANDWICH ISLANDS.—The Cambridge is on her way to Honolulu with a full cargo of Oregon products and some ten or dozen passengers. Her manifest shows that she carries out: 200 feet of lumber; 30,000 lbs. oats; 100 barrels salmon; 200 half barrels salmon; 150 thousand shingles; 300 boxes apples; 20 packages hoop poles; 250 sacks potatoes; 100 bales staves; 100 gallons coal tar; 100 cases merchandise.

PASSENGERS.—E. W. McGraw, Esq., Reuben Weeks, Theodore Silver, H. B. Roundtree, W. H. Mitchell, Chas. Sterling, Dr. Pardine, Rev. T. B. Sanderson, Mrs. A. C. Brooks, two children and servants.

SLIGHTLY GOOD.—Scene Front street. Enter two jolly Emeralders:

1st Hibernian. "Well Patrick are you going to vote?"

2d Hibernian. "I am that, and McClellan is my man, too, I tell you Michael, he has his eye on the presidential chair, he has indade."

1st Hibernian. "I believe yees, Patrick, acushla, and if he'll only kape his eye on it, he'll never [illegible] his — seat in it. You can bet on that." Immense applause.

CANNON AND SHELL.—The Marysville Appeal says: "A lot of large cannon and shells were shipped from San Francisco to Portland, Oregon, for the fortifications in course of erection at that place."

We are surprised to learn from this source that fortifications are building in Portland. They must be the works at the mouth of the Columbia, alluded to.

[illegible] INQUEST.—Coroner Hicklin was called upon yesterday to [illegible] an inquest on the body of a man by the name of [illegible]ay, who had fallen down a pair of stairs, in [illegible] building, on Stark street and broke his neck. [illegible] was a lame man and had been a former employee in [illegible] market. He came to this city some two years since from Iowa, and died a victim of strong drink.

COUNTY TAXES.—The new tax law of the State of Oregon, makes it incumbent upon the Sheriff to have the taxes promptly collected; and for that purpose the tax list of the county will be placed in his hands on the 20th of the present month for collection. Sheriff Stitzel will notify by posters in the different precincts when he is ready to receive the taxes.

ON THE WAYS.—The steamer Cowlitz is being hauled out on the ways in Captain Clinton's shipyard for a general overhauling, to fit her for a fresh contest at opposition, against the steamer Rescue. Her engines are also being made over at the Oregon Iron works in this city.

CONNECTING.—The slip between the new wharves and the steamship landing will be closed up the present week, which will give this city about three thousand feet of continuous wharfage, adapted to all kinds of vessels or river boats.

THE RIVER.—The water in the Willamette is rising very perceptibly, sufficient has been added by the late rains to warrant a steady line of boats running from Canemah to Salem and other points above.

"EDDICATION."—Yesterday morning an active little Hibernian went through the streets shouting "Hurrah for ditle Mick Lillen and Eddication." The effect was overpowering especially the "eddication."

SOIREE.—An evening soiree will be given this evening at Mr. Birabaum's rooms, particularly for the benefit of scholars and others. New term commences on Monday next.

STILL THEY COME.—The steamer Wilson G. Hunt arrived from the Cascades at 4 o'clock, p. m. yesterday, bringing six wagons with the accompanying immigrants from the States.

A WET ELECTION DAY.—As usual in Oregon, yesterday was decidedly a wet election day. The best of order prevailed everywhere throughout the city and items were decidedly dry.

HORSE SHOES BY MACHINERY.—A comparatively new branch of industry is making horse shoes by machinery. The shoes turned out are as much superior to the old hand made shoes as modern cotton fabric is to the product of the hand loom. And so much has the introduction of machinery cheapened the process that machine-made shoes can be sold by the ton at about the same price as the raw material. Like every other moving or reforming the necessity for hand work and cheapened the production of labor, the machine-made horse shoe has met with much opposition; but like all really meritorious productions, it will make its way to general use in spite of it.—Phila. Ledger.

A professor of the allopathic school explains the homœopathic theory of the similia similibus curantur, by saying "If a patient has a broken head, hit him again with a brickbat."

The first effect of a bilious climate upon the human system is to produce torpor and inactivity of the Liver, thereby preventing the natural and free discharge of bile. All know the baleful nature of the poison that produces Fever and Ague and its kindred diseases. A sallow complexion, capricious appetite, and occasional pain in the side, are often the only symptoms to warn of impending danger. The operation of Dr. Osgood's India Cholagogue is to counteract this baneful influence, by producing activity of the biliary organs, and a healthy discharge of bile from the system.
Guard against imitation. Be sure that you obtain Dr. Osgood's India Cholagogue and you are safe. Sold everywhere. Sole Agents for the Pacific Coast,

Le Doyen's Sarsaparilla, Yellow Dock, AND IODINE ALTERATIVE is the only remedy for invigorating a debilitated and broken down constitution. Persons of a scrofulous habit, suffering from impure blood, nervous trembling, impaired digestion, liver disease, lost vitality, should give this great blood purifier a trial. All rheumatic diseases, constitutional complaints and organic affections are radically cured by a steady use of this medicine. oct19d3m

"A Slight Cold," Coughs.—Few are aware of the importance of checking a Cough or "slight cold" in its first stage; that which in the beginning would yield to a mild remedy, if neglected, soon attacks the lungs. "Brown's Bronchial Troches" give sure and almost immediate relief. Military Officers and Soldiers should have them, as they can be carried in the pocket and taken as occasion requires.
REDINGTON & CO., San Francisco, Agents for the Pacific Coast.

For the complete Cure of Coughs, Pains in the Chest, Difficulty of Breathing, and all other Lung Diseases which tend to Consumption, you will find that Allen's Lung Balsam is the most valuable remedy yet discovered; wherever it has been introduced, cures have been made, which have astonished every one who have witnessed its effects. Dr. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters.—The stomach is the fountain head of scores of diseases which infest the human system. Indigestion, bad enough per se, generates diarrhea, dysentery, flatulence, vertigo, palpitation of the heart, general debility, &c. Get rid of it, then, at once, by going through a course of
DR. HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS.
A palatable and refreshing preparation, which has surely relieved all complaints of the stomach and its dependencies, as the sunshine melts the snow. A course of the medicine may not always be necessary—one bottle frequently accomplishes a complete cure.—Sold by all Druggists and dealers everywhere. [illegible]

HOSTETTER'S
CELEBRATED
STOMACH BITTERS,

THE OPERATION OF THIS PALATABLE REMEDY upon the stomach, liver and excretory organs is singularly soothing and conservative. It regulates, recruits and purifies them. The system in all its functions yields to its control and invigorating properties.

Invigorate the System.
Vigorous digestion and pure bile produce nutricious blood, and nutricious blood a healthy frame. Does the victim of a dyspeptic stomach and a disordered liver desire to know how the digestion may be improved, the bile and other fluids of the body purified?

Dr. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters
Will accomplish this desirable revolution in the system, regulating the secretions and excretions, giving tone to the animal juices which dissolve the food, strengthen every relaxed nerve, muscle and fibre, and brings the whole machinery of vitality into vigorous and healthful play.

Strengthen the System.
The best means of imparting vigor to the broken-down frame and shattered constitution, which has yet been invented or discovered, is proffered to the feeble of both sexes and all ages in

Dr. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters.
Debility, from whatever cause arising, may be cured; strength, in whatever manner it may have been wasted, may be restored by the use of this powerful and healthy invigorant. For indigestion and all its painful effects, bodily and mental, they are a positive specific.

A word to the Aged.
In the decline of life the loss of vital force consequent upon physical decay can only be safely supplied by some vivifying preparation which recruits the strength and spirits, without entailing the exhaustion which is always the final effect of ordinary stimulants. We tender to the aged

Dr. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters,
As an invigorant and restorative, immediate in its beneficial action and permanent in its effects. It tones the stomach, improves the appetite, and acts like a charm upon the spirits.

For Females.
Thousands of ladies resort to it as a remedy for hysteria, fluttering of the heart, nervous headache, vertigo, general debility, and all peculiar disturbances and derangements to which, as a sex, they are subject. It cheers and enlightens the depressed mental powers, as well as strengthens the body, and its use is never followed by any reaction.

Support of the Chicago Convention Exposed! —The following letter, says the [illegible], was written by John S. Berry, late of Oroville, Cal., candidate last fall on the Copperhead ticket for District Judge of the Second Judicial District, to J. E. Barber, of Oroville. Berry was a delegate to the Chicago Convention, chosen by the Democratic State Convention which was held in San Francisco last July, and is a fair specimen of the men which compose the Convention and the leaders of the party. That he is a cold-blooded traitor, the letter will show. That the leaders of the Democratic party are of his same political kind, needs no argument to demonstrate. We advise those who are still in the [illegible] to the traitor [illegible] Democracy, to read this letter, and then forsake the traitorous party.

New York, Sept. 15, 1864.

Dear Barber: When I left the fair shores of the Pacific I little expected to have been absent so long; but the duties devolving upon me as a servant of the cause of true Democracy (alias Secession) made it incumbent upon me to remain on this side until the "turning out" of [illegible] Abe from the White House. Don't infer from the foregoing observation that I am so unsophisticated as to think for a moment that the Chickahominy Grave-Digger will beat Lincoln for the Presidency. Far from it. But what I do mean is this: By the aid of "greenbacks," military orders, the army vote and fine counting, the result will be declared against "Little Mac" in the Electoral College. What I mean, though, is this: That there will be the prettiest little fight for the succession that has ever been witnessed in ancient or modern times. Lincoln's election will not be on the square, but will be accomplished by agencies utterly subversive of the elective franchise. Nevertheless, whether substantially fair or not, there will be sufficient irregularities to afford a protest to the "unterrified" to claim that it is unfair, and then comes the "tug of war." I tell you, Barber, war for the succession is in the air on all sides, and is as sure to follow the election of Lincoln as the secession of the South followed his first election. I only speak of the situation, not that I desire it should be so. Now it must be apparent that the advantages of the new phase of battle will be against your side, when you take into consideration that the natural law of the situation will make the rebels our allies; and again, McClellan on that issue will divide the army. The soldiers are now for him if they had their way; and under the almost certainty of McClellan's success against Lincoln on the issue I have alluded to, officers and soldiers by regiments will come to him. It will be much like Napoleon's return from Elba; therefore I hold that Abe's hold on the jugular vein of "public pap" is limited.

The States of Kentucky, Missouri, Indiana, Illinois and Ohio will inaugurate the contest, declaring McClellan the lawful President. New York city will respond, and soon New Jersey and all New York and Pennsylvania will join in the movement. There is one thing may save the catastrophe: in case "our stumpers" down in Georgia—I mean Hood & Co., you know—and Lee and Early in Virginia should brush up and turn the tide right sharply against Grant, Sheridan and Sherman, "Mac" would be elected in spite of fate, and would quietly take possession of the portfolio of State. I don't, however, expect that such will be the case.

John S. Berry.

P. S.—Our Convention holding over and the nomination of a military chieftain who was liked by the soldiers, is a part of the programme to which I alluded above.

A little boy had lived some time with a penurious uncle. The latter was one day walking out with the child by his side, when a friend accompanied by a greyhound, addressed him. The little fellow, never having seen a dog before of so slight and slim a texture, clasped the creature round the neck with the impassioned cry: "Oh doggie, doggie, do you live with uncle too, that you are so thin?"

A Greenback Case.

Having been compelled to accept of Legal Tender Notes at par since the 17th day of December, 1862, for the rent of my handsome Brick Store, corner of Morrison and Front streets, I feel compelled to announce for the benefit of the public at large, that

Jacob Mayer

Leased the building of me on the 17th day of February, 1862, for a term of years, at which time there was no such currency in vogue, and it was understood the terms were CASH. Since the date above stated I have received the depreciated currency regularly under protest for the rent of the

CITY OF PARIS STORE,

Making less than two-fifths of the real amount said Mayet was to pay. He has secured the building at very advantageous rates, and even were he now to comply with his contract, and pay in COIN, would be getting the best bargain in the city. I make this statement to show the public what kind of a man he must be to take such undue advantage of the times to put a few dollars in himself by LEGAL SWINDLING. The public can readily see what it costs to have such tenants.

Proclamation.

State of Oregon, Executive Department, [illegible] 1864.

Whereas, I have received a requisition from Brigadier General Benj. Alvord, commanding the District of Oregon, acting under the authority of the War Department, for one regiment of infantry, in addition to the volunteers now in the service of the United States, to be used in the enforcement of the laws, suppression of Indian hostilities, and to [illegible] this military district;

Now, therefore, I, Addison C. Gibbs, Governor of the State of Oregon, and Commander-in-Chief of the Militia thereof, do hereby call upon the citizens of this State to organize themselves into [illegible] to fill the foregoing requisition.

In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand, [L. S.] and caused the seal of the State of Oregon to be affixed. Done at Salem this 24th day of October, A. D. 1864.

ADDISON C. GIBBS.
Governor of Oregon.

Attest: Samuel E. May, Secretary of State.

The following is hereby promulgated: The plan of recruiting and organizing the regiment will be as follows, until further notice:

RECRUITING.

The regiment will be known as the First Infantry, Oregon Volunteers. The field, staff and line officers will be commissioned by the Governor. The State will be divided into districts, according to the number of persons in each district liable to do military duty. When such district has furnished its quota of volunteers there will be no draft in the same under this call. Each district will furnish one company.

Commissions will be issued by the Governor to company officers, conditioned that they shall recruit their respective companies, and be ready to be mustered into the service, within a time hereafter to be named.

A company rendezvous will be established at some central point in each district, and, if practicable, all recruits will be retained there until the company is filled and ready to be mustered into service.

The State has provided by law for the payment of a bounty of $150 in State interest-bearing bonds, payable and paid to each volunteer mustered into the service, in addition to the bounty authorized to be paid by the United States. (See statutes 1864, page 48.)

The wages of a soldier, in addition, are $16 per month, besides clothing, equipments, rations, and allowances furnished by the United States. (See statutes, 1864, page 502.)

ORGANIZATION.

One (1) colonel, one (1) lieutenant colonel, one (1) major, one (1) adjutant (an extra lieutenant), one (1) quartermaster (an extra lieutenant), one (1) surgeon, two (2) assistant surgeons, one (1) chaplain, one (1) sergeant major, one (1) regimental quartermaster sergeant, one (1) regimental commissary sergeant and one (1) hospital steward. Ten companies form a regiment.

COMPANY OF INFANTRY.

One (1) captain, one (1) 1st lieutenant, one (1) 2d lieutenant, one (1) 1st sergeant, four (4) sergeants, eight (8) corporals, two (2) musicians, one (1) wagoner, sixty-four (64) privates, minimum, and eighty-two (82) privates, maximum, besides the non-commissioned officers.

Musicians may be enlisted in each company, who will be rated and paid as privates.

The following is the estimated

QUOTA OF MEN DUE FROM EACH COUNTY:

Jackson	20
Josephine	5
Curry	3
Douglas	50
Coose	14
Lane	64
Linn	100
Benton	44
Polk	40
Marion	98
Clackamas	49
Yamhill	45
Tillamook	3
Multnomah	122
Washington	43
Columbia	7
Clatsop	11
Wasco and Grant	120
Umatilla	35
Baker and Union	58

To the County Officers:

Other States have filled with commendable promptitude every call that has been made upon them. The people have a very natural repugnance to a draft, under which [illegible] der it there must inevitably be some cases of severe but necessary hardship. Opportunity is now given to avoid such a draft. The men are needed promptly, and every consideration of patriotism and of State, local and personal pride requires that you commence promptly and prosecute vigorously the business of obtaining volunteers. The officers of the State feeling the most earnest desire that the entire State should avoid a draft, appeal to the patriotic citizens of your county, through you who are their officers and legal and natural representatives. As guardians of their rights and of their honor, it is incumbent upon you to respond to this appeal by earnest and successful work. Call to your aid the assistance of the active and influential citizens of the county. Let every loyal citizen of the county understand, and, if possible, induce him to realize that he has an immediate and personal interest in the success of your efforts. If necessary, call meetings in your school districts and bring the matter home to every inhabitant. Funds will be needed to pay expenses, not provided for by law. Let subscriptions be circulated in each county for that purpose and preserve a record of the names of the donors among the archives of the county. In short, the Governor, upon whom the requisition is made, expects, and justly, that you will respond to this call upon you with an earnestness of purpose which shall insure success. Due notice of the districting of the State will be given as soon as it can be made.

LE. DOYEN'S
Sarsaparilla, Yellow Dock
—AND—
IODINE ALTERATIVE
FOR THE

Cleanse the Blood.

With corrupt, disordered or vitiated Blood you must be sick all over. It may burst out in pimples or sores, or in some active disease, or it may merely keep you listless, depressed and good for nothing. But you cannot have good health while your blood is impure. Sarsaparilla purges out these impurities and stimulates the organs of life into vigorous action, restoring the health and repelling disease. Hence it rapidly cures a variety of complaints which are caused by impurities of the blood, such as Scrofula or King's Evil, Tumors, Ulcers, Sores, Eruptions, Pimples, Blotches, Boils, St. Anthony's Fire, Rose or Erysipelas, Tetter or Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Ring Worm, Cancer or Cancerous Tumors, Sore eyes, Female Diseases, such as Retention, Irregularity, Suppression, Whites, Sterility, Syphilis or Venereal Diseases, Liver Complaints and Heart Diseases.

BLOOD AND LIVER.

SCROFULA, CONSUMPTION, RHEUMATISM, CANCER,
HEART, LIVER AND KIDNEY DISEASES,
NEURALGIA, NERVOUS AFFEC-
TIONS, DYSPEPSIA,
BRONCHITIS, &c.

AS A TONIC,

Its operations are evinced by strengthening the digestive organs and increasing the appetite. In cases of Dyspepsia, Emaciation and Debility, an increased nutrition of the body is the result of the employment of Iodine. The patient recovers flesh, strength and color; hitherto pale, relaxed and feeble, he becomes full, strong and florid.

Are you sick, feeble and complaining? Are you out of order, with your system deranged and your feelings uncomfortable? These symptoms are often the prelude to serious illness. Some fit of sickness is creeping upon you, and should be averted by a timely use of the right remedy. Take Le Doyen's Sarsaparilla, and cleanse out the disordered system—purify the blood and let the fluids move on unobstructed in health again.

AS A LITHONTRIPTIC,

it has no equal; being chemically combined with Iodine, it possesses in a high degree the power of dissolving Stone in the Bladder, and tumors of the kidney, preventing gravel formations and enlargements of the prostrate gland, irritation of the neck of the bladder, dropsy, etc.

ALLEN'S

The Remedy for Curing
CONSUMPTION, COUGHS, COLDS, ASTHMA, CROUP,
Diseases of the Throat, Bronchitis, Pains and Oppression of the Chest or Lungs, Difficult Breathing and all the Diseases of the Pulmonary Organs.

Its action is expectorant, alterative, sudorific, sedative, diaphoretic and diuretic, which renders it one of the most valuable remedies known for curing diseases of the lungs. It excites expectoration, and causes the lungs to throw off the phlegm or mucus; CHANGES THE SECRETIONS AND PURIFIES THE BLOOD; heals the irritated parts; gives strength to the digestive organs; brings the liver to its proper action, and imparts strength to the whole system. Such is the immediate and satisfactory effect, that IT IS WARRANTED TO BREAK UP THE MOST DISTRESSING COUGH IN A FEW HOURS' TIME, if not of too long standing. IT IS WARRANTED to give entire satisfaction even in the MOST CONFIRMED CASES OF CONSUMPTION. IT IS WARRANTED NOT to produce costiveness (which is the case with most remedies) or affect the head, as it contains no Opium in any form. IT IS WARRANTED TO BE PERFECTLY HARMLESS to the most delicate child, although it is an active and powerful remedy for restoring the system. THERE IS NO REAL NECESSITY FOR SO MANY DEATHS BY CONSUMPTION, when ALLEN'S LUNG BALSAM will prevent it, if only taken in time.
